• flutes, and oftener sing and swear.

^ civil people and inoffensive, except "^onbled with a headache. This place been very moderate, and no blood here, notwithstanding the endeavours Lst^ter David.

sa.y the Tesica[1] will go in her turn.

Spain and Austria support her, but ^ Scarlet Lady drops, it will be a bad e Jajauarius.

Au Colombier, July zqth, 1797.

from the house of M. Cumpel-'s partner, with a name as soft -txose in Duten's story,[2] where I came > meet Mademoiselle Perregaux and a ends. It is near Arpajcmj an antique mcied with moats, charmilles and gar- little river Remarde runs by the edge en, under shady bowers, very rural and eiamatic. I crossed the country from Tlie Scarlet Ladv. Rome.

cistn. gentleman complained to him of the harsh- Italian names, and said German ones were ounce, such as Schwartzenburg, &c.

15—2